

TIMETABLE

DIPLOMA COURSE IN THE FORENSIC MEDICAL SCIENCES (DipFMS Course)

Academy of Forensic Medical Sciences

Charterhouse Square, London

Thursday and Tuesday evenings, 6p.m. – 8p.m.

DATE	LECTURE
Lecture
1	Introduction & The Forensic Autopsy
2	The role of the Coroner in death investigation
3	Forensic Psychiatry
4	Interpretation of Injuries
5	Clinical and pathological aspects of alcohol and drug abuse
6	Forensic DNA Analysis
7	Role of anthropology and archaeology in death investigation
8	Medico-legal issues and the Doctor
9	Forensic Odontology
10	Alcohol, Drugs and Driving
11	Recreational Drugs and the Law
12	Asphyxia and related deaths including drowning
13	Forensic expertise in an international setting
14	Role of the Prosecution and the Role of the Defence
15	The Expert Witness
16	Sudden Death – Natural Causes
CHRISTMAS BREAK
17	The management of major trauma – medico-legal considerations
18	Head Injuries
19	Examination of Detainees
20	Deaths in custody
21	Mass disaster management nick bracken PV
22	Fires & Explosions; Scientific & Medical Aspects
23	Paediatric Forensic Medicine/Pathology
24	Crime Scene Investigation
25	Forensic Entomology and Diagnosing death and signs and changes after death / time of death
26	Drugs and Poisons Detection and interpretation
27	Forensic Science in crime investigation
28	Elementary ballistics and firearm injuries
29	Investigation of sexual offences
30	Forensic Imaging and close of the course